Implement a timer that loops continuously until manually terminated.		Made a timer the loops continuously until manually terminated by a user.
Find a better sound library for the timer.
Start the first process on making the GUI for the to-do list	Tkinter is used as the python library for this process	Make the "wording" where the user can type their list
STRENGTH
The timer is now able to loop continuously.
The to-do list that the user typed can now be seen by the user through GUI
AREAS FOR DEVELOPMENT
Making the timer more user-friendly.
Add a checkmark to the to-do list & let the user also delete their tasks in GUI
STRATEGY FOR SUCCESS
Adding a pause & play to the timer that is irrelevant of the cycles (study & work)
